Zip Code [REDACTED] Topic Transportation Comment Please stop building high speed rail. The building cost is super expensive, can only get people to the outskirts of the destinations (which worsen the local traffic), the ticket price would be about the same as flight at best. We will also run into the risk of running out of fund in the middle of building and all investment gone. And on top of all these, by the time it's built, it's probably obsolete. So please just use the money to improve public transportation in the cities. That's what we need. [1] mailto: [REDACTED]
