Why do you want to punish those of us that commute? A lot of us in construction have to commute to different job sites and they aren't usually near a transportation source like Bart. Speaking of Bart, how about carrying it up to solano county? That would get some cars off the road. A universal basic income is garbage. The government trying to "help" make housing affordable is going to backfire. My wife is home now so I'm done bitching at you guys. [1] mailto:[REDACTED]
