To whom it may concern:

I am writing to register my opposition to Plan Bay Area in its current and proposed versions. Please don't implement it.

PBA is antithetical to personal freedom, self-government, and our constitutional political institutions.

PBA is fundamentally harmful and intellectually unjustified as a plan.

Since PBA has been imposed, life in the Bay Area has not gotten better. Recently, a survey was published stating that 47% of millennials are hoping to leave the Bay Area because of the deterioration of quality of life and cost of living. Additionally, job growth in San Francisco has ended about two years ago, after PBA began to take root.

Citizens opposed Plan Bay Area 1, and numerous university and professional scholars contributed academic comments that thoroughly discredited the PBA vision of stack and pack housing and rail and bus transit, and the specifics of the Plan and its models. These voices were ignored, but the evidence is piling up that they were right.

Please do not proceed with PBA2.

Sincerely,

Charles Cagnon
